Emerging growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 8.01 – Other Events.

On June 1, 2022, BlackRock Capital Investment Corporation (the “Company”) reconvened its special meeting of stockholders (the “Special Meeting”) to vote on a proposal to authorize the Company, with the approval of the Company’s board of directors, to sell or otherwise issue shares of its common stock (during the next 12 months) at a price below the Company’s then current net asset value per share in one or more offerings, subject to certain limitations set forth in the proxy statement for the Special Meeting (including that the cumulative number of shares sold pursuant to such authority does not exceed 25% of the Company’s then outstanding common stock immediately prior to each such sale).

The Special Meeting was originally scheduled for May 3, 2022 but was adjourned until June 1, 2022 in order to allow stockholders more time to vote on the proposal as sufficient votes had not been received to reach quorum to hold the meeting. Because the Company did not obtain the necessary votes to satisfy a quorum at the reconvened Special Meeting held on June 1, 2022, the Company closed the reconvened Special Meeting without conducting any business and, as a result, the proposal did not pass.
